DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-12, drawn to a method of identifying protein sequences.

Group II, claim(s) 13, drawn to a compound of a specific formula.

Group III, claim(s) 14, drawn to a solution comprising at least one lysine and a peroxycarbonate compound.

Group IV, claim(s) 15, drawn to a solution comprising at least one protein, and a peroxycarbonate compound.

Group V, claim(s) 16, drawn to a solution comprising at least one amino acid and a peroxycarbonate compound.

Group VI, claim(s) 17-18, drawn to a method for directing fragmentation of peptides.

The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the only common technical feature for Groups I and III-VI is a mixture of a peroxycarbonate compound and a protein, peptide or amino acid. Since no peroxycarbonate compound is specified, the technical feature is known in the art, see e.g. Richardson et al. (JACS, 2000), which specifically discloses: "Finally, the potential role of peroxymonocarbonate ion as a reactive oxygen species in biology is worthy of further investigation in view of the kinetic and mechanistic results of this study. Given the complexity of biochemical media, the results here argue for a more detailed examination of HCO_4^- formation under typical biochemical conditions and its oxidation of substrates such as amino acids and proteins." (Page 4683, last paragraph in Conclusions).

There is no common technical feature between inventions of Groups I, III-VI and Group II, since the compounds of Groups I, II-VI can be totally different from the one recited in Group II.

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

X is from claim 9, Y is from claim 10; R is from claim 11, compounds are from claim 12. One species among the compounds should be elected.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowed generic claim. Currently, the following claim(s) are generic: Claim 1.

3. A telephone call was made to Richard S. Myers on 04/19/10 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention or species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof. Applicant may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Yelena G. Gakh, Ph.D. whose telephone number is (571) 272-1257. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 am - 6:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Vickie Y. Kim can be reached on (571) 272-0579. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
